

April E. Kight

Member

April Kight works with companies of all sizes on a variety of transactional, corporate and commercial matters. Her practice involves assisting limited liability companies, corporations, and private equity funds with formation and governance matters and negotiating, documenting and closing complex business transactions, including strategic alliances, acquisitions, mergers, and debt and equity financings.

Ms. Kight is experienced with both leveraged and nonleveraged transactions financed through the use of New Markets Tax Credits, including representation of for-profit and not-for-profit borrowers, a leverage lender, and an allocatee. In addition, Ms. Kight is experienced with transactions utilizing federal and state renewable energy tax credits, including representation of investors in solar projects.

Ms. Kight is married to Robert and has two children. She enjoys spending time with her family and working on her antebellum farmhouse.

P: 336-370-8852

F: 336-217-9052

akight@schellbray.com

Practice Areas

General Corporate

Mergers & Acquisitions

New Markets Tax Credits

Renewable Energy

Private Equity

Securities Regulation

Education

Clemson University, B.S., 1992

Appalachian State University, B.S.B.A., summa cum laude, 2003

University of North Carolina, J.D., with high honors, 2006 North Carolina
Law Review

Bar Admissions

North Carolina

Professional Activities

North Carolina Bar Association, Business Law Section, Council member, 2016-2019

North Carolina Bar Association, Business Law Section, member of the Securities Regulation Committee

Greensboro Bar Association, Young Lawyers Section, past member of the Board of Directors

Community and Civic Activities

Preservation Greensboro, Inc., past member of the Board of Directors and past Chair, Advocacy Committee

Preservation Greensboro Development Fund, past member of the Board of Directors