

Janet M. Wallace

Title Attorney

Janet Wallace serves as the title attorney for the real estate team. Her primary responsibilities include searching title opinions, preparing real estate deeds and other closing documents.

Ms. Wallace has more than 20 years of experience in real estate title searches and closings. Before joining the firm, she practiced with her husband in Greensboro, handling real estate, family law, criminal, and will and estate matters. She is a former Magistrate Judge as well.

She is married to Steven Foskett. They are the adoptive parents of their dogs, Stella and Riker, and cat, Franklin. When she is able, Ms. Wallace travels to areas impacted by natural disasters to help provide food and debris cleanup.

P: 336-370-8803

jwallace@schellbray.com

Practice Area

Real Estate

Education

North Carolina A&T University
B.A., summa cum laude, 2005

Western Michigan University,
Thomas M. Cooley Law School
J.D., 2011

Bar Admissions

North Carolina

Community and Civic Activities

Greensboro Transit Authority, past member of the Board of Directors

Wyndham Championship, volunteer

Greensboro Jaycees, member