

P: 919-869-3070
halderman@schellbray.com

Jeffrey R. Wolfe

Special Counsel

Jeff Wolfe focuses his practice on all stages of the for-profit and non-profit business cycle, including entity formation, raising capital, daily contract needs, and strategic exits. He has advised companies of every size, from early-stage startups and small consulting companies to large public companies, on matters including complex mergers and acquisitions and private and public equity offerings.

In addition to providing legal services, Jeff enjoys mentoring and coaching business leaders on legal and non-legal matters. He has served as a counselor with the Forsyth Tech Small Business Center; a mentor with Velocity, an accelerator for creative entrepreneurs; and is involved with Winston Starts, a local entrepreneurial community.

Since 2021, Jeff has served on the school board for Redeemer School in Winston-Salem, NC. From 2015 to 2021, Jeff served on the Board of Directors for JusticeMatters, a non-profit that provides empowering legal services to protect children and help survivors of human trafficking and other trauma rebuild their lives.

Jeff enjoys spending time with his wife, Brittaney, and their four children, and his family is active in their church, Two Cities Church.

Practice Areas

General Corporate
Mergers and Acquisitions
Private Equity
Securities Regulation
Corporate Governance

Education

Indiana University Bloomington, B.A. 2005,
Phi Beta Kappa
Wake Forest University, J.D., 2008,
Executive Editor of the Wake Forest
Law Review

Bar Admissions

North Carolina

Professional Activities

Counselor, Forsyth Tech Small Business Center
Mentor, Velocity, an accelerator for creative entrepreneurs
Coach, Startup Weekend

Community and Civic Activities

Board of Directors, Justice Matters

Awards and Publications

North Carolina Super Lawyers, Rising Star, 2016-2020
Business North Carolina, Legal Elite, business law, 2018
Triad Business Journal, 40 Under 40, 2019