

Jesse R. Offchiss

Associate

Jesse R. Offchiss focuses his practice on assisting individuals and families with all aspects of the estate planning process, with the goal of helping clients protect what they have built over a lifetime of work and minimizing the tax liability brought on by inheritance.

Jesse also guides families through the process of estate and trust administration and is committed to providing personalized and compassionate legal services to each and every client. He understands that the probate process can be emotional and stressful in the wake of the loss of a loved one, and strives to make the process as smooth as possible.

Outside of the office Jesse is an avid sports fan, particularly college football, golf, Formula 1, and the English Premier League.

P: 336-370-8826

joffchiss@schellbray.com

Practice Areas

Trusts and Estates

Education

American University, B.A., cum laude, 2017

Wake Forest University School of Law,
J.D., cum laude, 2022

Bar Admissions

North Carolina

Professional Activities

North Carolina Bar Association, Estate Planning and Fiduciary Law Section